- 2. A course to train 12 young officers as instructors was organized in April 1951. The course was held at the Mal'ovitsa Mountain hostel (N4212 E2322) and at Gara Lakatnik (N4305 E2322).
- 3. A committee composed of the three men listed in Para.l, requested that Nikola Shopov, Encho Penkov, and Khristo Borisov, who were serving in the regular Army, be transferred to the mountain troop unit. Penkov and Borisov were transferred to the Ministry of War in Sofia, where, with the assistance of an unknown number of officers who had completed the training course in April, they organized a mountain climbing course for 25 to 30 men. This course was given in the Sini Kanen mountain area (N4243 E2621), above the city of Sliven.

4. a group of soldiers were trained in mountain climbing in the area below Mount Sinanitsa (N4144 E2322), in the Pirin Mountains. Food supplies for this group were taken up to the training area

50X1-HUM mountain climbing for civilians, and 12-month mountain climbing courses for military personnel. These courses were to be given at the Mal'ovitsa hostel, and were allegedly to start in the winter of 1951-52.
